

For Immediate Release

2020 Korea Bojagi Forum (KBF) May 13-19 in Seoul, South Korea

Conference Highlights include:

- Exhibitions of Traditional and Contemporary Bojagi art'
 - Traditional Bojagis by Korean Artists
 - 10 x 10, Korean/Danish Artists' Bojagi Inspired Works Curated by Lasse Antonsen and Chunghie Lee
 - Seoul/New York artists curated by Youngsoon Cha
 - A juried exhibition of Bojagi Inspired Wearables curated by Moon-he Baik (entry deadline Feb. 28, 2020).
 - A juried exhibition of Bojagi-Inspired Miniature works coordinated by Anna Maria Orban (entry deadline Feb. 28, 2020).'
 - A juried exhibition of Bojagi- inspired works up to 35" (90 cm) (entry deadline Feb. 28, 2020).
- International Lecture Series with speakers from Korea, Finland, Spain, US, Rumania, Germany
- Workshops on traditional Bojagi techniques with master artists
- Cultural Tours led by Moon-he Baik, a 2-day tour, during the exhibition period and a 3-day post-conference Tour.

Conference registration details will be posted on the KBF website soon. https://

www.beyondabove.com/korea-bojagi-forum/

Artists Call for entry can be downloaded from the KBF website at: https://

www.beyondabove.com/korea-bojagi-forum/